

MILLS PROPERTIES WELCOMES PLAZA SQUARE
APARTMENTS TO MANGEMENT PORTFOLIO

ST. LOUIS, MO—August 4, 2009: St. Louis based Mills Properties recently expanded its management portfolio to include the Historic Plaza Square Apartments in Downtown St. Louis Missouri!

“We are looking forward to bringing the property back to its original high standards and easy city living atmosphere” said Bruce Mills, Chairman/CEO of Mills Properties. “The last time Plaza Square obtained occupancy above 90% was around 18 years ago when Mills Properties managed the property. We are excited to revitalize this area of St. Louis!”

Plaza Square Apartments consists of 5 high-rise buildings built in 1959 and has 911 apartment homes, making it one of the largest in St. Louis. Plaza Square, located at 17th and Chestnut across from Union Station, is listed in the National Register of Historic Places. In addition to its prime location, Plaza Square features great floorplans, a pool, fitness center, recreation room, and garage parking. Many of the buildings also have absolutely fantastic views of the impressive St. Louis skyline!

“We are thrilled to have the unique opportunity to manage this premiere St. Louis property” said Jan Wiesler, Senior Vice President of Operations for Mills Properties. “There is nothing like this community in St. Louis and the Mills Properties Management Team is ready for the exciting journey!”

Mills Properties has been creating a unique living experience for apartment residents all over the St. Louis Metro Area for over 30 years! Mills Properties has become the recognized leader in the management and development of apartment communities in St. Louis. The company continues to grow, with a current portfolio of over 30 apartment communities and over 8000 units. Check us out online at www.millsapartments.net!
